Privacy statement

Ottogusto's Privacy Statement

This privacy statement regulates the processing of your personal data by Ottogusto, CP2 Digital NV, located at Lintsesteenweg 531B, 2540 Hove, with company number 1006.907.015 – hereinafter referred to as "Ottogusto". Contact: support@ottogusto.com.

Ottogusto attaches great importance to your privacy and processes personal data in a fair, careful and transparent manner. We do this in accordance with applicable legislation, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Please read this statement carefully. By sharing personal data via our website, email or telephone, or by submitting a question or complaint, you confirm that you have read this statement.

Last update: December 16, 2025.

Article 1 – What is personal data?

Personal data is any data that can be linked to an identified or identifiable individual. Examples: name, email address, phone number, date of birth, IP address, user ID.

Processing means collecting, storing, using, modifying, communicating or deleting personal data.

We process your data in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the French Data Protection Act (Loi Informatique et Libertés), and other national privacy laws applicable in the countries where we operate.

Article 2 – What data do we process?

When visiting our website

After permission, we can place analytical and marketing cookies. This allows us to collect data such as IP address, location, device information, click behavior, etc. This helps us to improve your user experience.

When placing an order

We process your contact details and address details to fulfil your order and provide aftercare. When you create an account, we keep your order history for up to 7 years after your last order.

When contacting our customer service

If you contact us by e-mail, telephone or contact form, we will only process your data to answer your question.

When subscribing to the newsletter

Your email address will be stored for a maximum of 2 years after your last interaction or order.

Article 3 – Who receives your data?

We do not share your data for commercial purposes without your consent. However, we can rely on:

- Internal processors within our group
- External service providers (accounting, IT, etc.) as processors
- Non-European partners only with the right safeguards (such as standard contractual clauses)

In exceptional cases, we are legally obliged to share data, for example through a court order.

Article 4 – Your rights

You have the right to:

- Access and copy of your data
- Correction or deletion
- Restriction of processing
- Objection to processing (also for direct marketing)
- Transfer of your data in a readable format

To exercise your rights, we ask you to verify your identity (for example, by means of a copy of your identity card). Contact: dataprivacy@ottogusto.com or Lintsesteenweg 531B, 2540 Hove.

Do you have complaints? Then turn to the:

- Belgian Data Protection Authority: contact@apd-gba.be
- Dutch Data Protection Authority (for NL users)
- French Data Protection Authority (for FR users): Commission Nationale de l'Informatique et des Libertés (CNIL),
  3 Place de Fontenoy TSA 80715 75334 PARIS CEDEX 07, France.
  Tel: +33 (0)1 53 73 22 22.
  Website: https://www.cnil.fr
  Online complaint form: available on https://www.cnil.fr

Article 5 – How do we protect your data?

We take technical and organizational measures such as:

- Encryption (SSL)
- Access control
- Antivirus and firewall protection
- Regular training of staff

We cannot be held liable for misuse by third parties.
